14. Description of Amendment/Modification (Organized by UCF Section headings, including solicitation/contract subject matter where feasible.)

The purpose of this Amendment 001 is to post the Answers to the Questions (Qs & As) per the continuation page.

Question 1. First Source Act: Will DCPS require a new waiver request for the First Source Act or recently granted waiver can be applicable to GAGA-2022-R-0025?

Answer 1. Each contract stands alone. First Source Act is a law which applies to all contracts with certain thresholds awarded by DC Government and DC agencies.

Question 2. Will subcontracting be applicable to GAGA-2022-R-0025?

Answer 2. Subcontracting is an important law which applies to contracts of $250K and over thresholds awarded by DC Government and DC agencies. Contractors must either request waivers and/or submit subcontracting plan. Agencies may/will request waiver from Department of Small and Local Business Development (DSLBD). Waivers to subcontracting have been granted before.

Question 3: Does the bid require a minimum delivery amount?

Answer 3: One Requirements Contract with fixed unit price in accordance with 27 DCMR Chapter 24 will be awarded. The Requirements Contracts does not require minimum delivery amount and/or quantity. The Requirements Contract deals with fluctuations, increase/decrease in quantities and amount.

Question 4: What are the vaccination requirements for our delivery associates?

Answer 4. Visit this website: <https://mayor.dc.gov/release/mayor-bowser-announces-covid-19-vaccination-requirements-all-adults-regularly-schools-and>.

Question 5. Is there the potential of adding additional schools to the bid?

Answer 5. This requirement started as a ‘Pilot Program’ with two schools and now it is seven (7) schools. There may be potential of including additional schools.
