SummerLearningCredit Recovery Guidance

EffectiveJune 2024.

To support students intaying on track with their course credits and graduating on tide PS tudents canenroll in credit recovery courses during summer the ag. The DCPS credit recovery program is designed to support students in their efforts to recover credits from courses they have failed. Credit recovery courses are individualized and proficie based.

DCPS students participating in summer learning it recovery courses reprovided with the same high academic supports and instruction they would receive in such courses ring the regular school year. TheCredit Recovery Policy onveys DCPS' requirements for its credit recovery program, including available courses eligibility for credit recovery, allowable formats for instruction, scheduling and staffing, attendance, course ompletion and grading, the appeals process, and special consideration for English Learners and students with disabilities are detailed below. Unless specifically noted in this policy, all other requirements of the Credit Recovery Policy programs.

AvailableCourses

During the summer learningession, Physical Education will bearailablecredit recoveryoffering, and schools mayoffer it to students.(2) courses

Attendance

In summerlearningcredit recovery courses, students are expected thend classes every day of each week (.e., typically five(5) days per wee)k This expectation may be adjusted in the rare circumstance that a student completes the required materials before the conclusion of the summer leases is gon. This determination will be made by their teacher and must be used in the student's educational record

If a student is absent without a valid excuse for four (4) days in a summer lear bisig on, the yvill be withdrawn from the course and receive a grade of "Wi" their transcript and/or report card Absence notifications will be provided to families after be second, third, and fourtbunexcused absence cee (b)-0.7 t